

MANY ENTERTAINED IN WEST POINT HOMES

Celebrate 84th Birthday of Captain S. Henry
Marshall.

WEST POINT, VA., Oct. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Julian Baugh have a surprise party in honor of the birthday of Mrs. J. W. Owens on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Owens is the mother of Mrs. A. Julian Baugh. The guests were the relatives of the family and the intimate friends. Many hymns were used, including some never given. Fine music through the evening from the piano, violin and two saxophones, added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

On Monday evening Mrs. Frank Smith entertained in honor of the 84th birthday of her father, Captain J. Henry Marshall. The rooms were decorated in roses and ferns. The Hayes Orchestra, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Knapp of Richmond, furnished the music. The guests were grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Captain Marshall.

Mrs. Moore, wife of Major Charles Moore, of the U. S. Cavalry, in the nest of the week, visited her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Bryant Dudley, here en route to join the Welfords in Richmond on a trip to Hot Springs. Before her return she will visit her father and mother, Congressman A. J. and Mrs. Montague, in Washington, D. C.

Congressman and Mrs. A. J. Montague arrived in West Point today en route to visit Attorney General and Mrs. J. R. Saunders, at their home in Saluda.

Mrs. Baynton entertained two tables at auction bridge on Friday.

Miss Mary Patterson, who has gone to her home in Arlington, Va., for a visit to her parents for several weeks, entertained at auction bridge before leaving.

Mrs. G. T. Davis, of Clifton Forge, has been a recent guest in the home of Miss Annie McCanna. Before her marriage, as Miss End Day, of Richmond, she visited in West Point frequently.

Miss Ellen Bragg spent the week end with Misses Cecil and Ruth Clayton in their home at Sunpine, in Gloucester County. Misses Clayton are pupils of the West Point High School this session.

Miss Floria Nixon, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Miner, has returned to Phillipsburg, N. J.

Miss Clara Thorne and Miss Mary Purnell left Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. B. Nunnally of Richmond. They accompanied Mrs. Nunnally, who was passing through town in her automobile, en route from a visit she had paid relatives in Gloucester County.

Mrs. Cooke, son and daughter, from Front Royal, will be here Sunday to visit Mayor H. Lane Cooke.

Miss Sadie Gary, of Norfolk, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Gary.

Mrs. E. L. Coply, will spend the week-end with the members of the congregation at Richmond. Rev. E. L. Coply is assisting Rev. Mr. DeVoe in a series of revival meetings there.

Rev. E. W. Billings, pastor of the First Baptist Church, West Point, who has accepted a call to take charge of the Oakwood Avenue Baptist Church, Richmond, will not leave here until about the middle of October. He will preach here three more Sundays. Mr. Billings has bought a home in Richmond and will move his family there after October 15.

Merrill Cole, a student at Hampden-Sidney College, visited his brother, Major O. L. Cole, here last week.

Rev. John Tate, of Richmond, will begin a series of revival meetings in the Christian Church here on next Sunday morning.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the B. Temple Palmer Post No. 28, American Legion, met to hear the report of Miss Mary Woodward, relative to the convention held in Norfolk. She gave a full and interesting report and the meeting adjourned. She said West Point started with thirty-two charter members and Norfolk with only thirty-four, of which the West Point Auxiliary was very proud.

Mrs. J. M. Wyatt entertained Circle No. 1, of the Baptist Woman's Society, on Wednesday evening in her apartment in the Oriental Hotel very charmingly. Mrs. Circle is studying "Western Women in Eastern Lands," by Helen Barron Montgomery. Mrs. Thomas P. Baugh, teacher.

The Community League held its first meeting of the fall session on Monday afternoon, with the following new officers: president, Mrs. Thomas P. Baugh; vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Gouldman; recording secretary, Mrs. S. A. Crow; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. W. Richardson; treasurer, Mrs. Leland Trout; reporter, Mrs. W. S. Eastwood. There were about sixty members on the roll and many plans were made for the ensuing year. A reception will be given to the teachers in the high school in connection with the October meeting.

The Longer Your Earrings the Better!

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The longer the earring the better.

The "drip" ear ornament seems to have outclassed for length, any of the antique forerunners fashioned by prehistoric jewelers for cave-dwelling belles.

Earrings, indeed, reach pretty far this year, for these long pendants are to be worn not only with "dress" costumes but with tailor-mades.

Up to date, the strictly tailored woman has confined herself to the small button earring. But now she can go to any length she wants in ear pendants.

The new earrings are sown in every form, shape and color. Jet, of course, is always effective.

The three-dimensional pendant formed in links is good.

The variations in the pendant range from the old long hoop with inner loops, to the big circle. These often bear much ornamentation.

Tassels of rubies or emeralds, are replicas of antiques. One stunning pair shows a pear-shaped pendant, from the center of which swings a drop of jet.

The possessor of antique earrings is indeed fortunate, for most of the moderns follow the antique styles.

HARRISONBURG NORMAL

Dormitories Are Full, With Many Students Living in Private Homes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HARRISONBURG, VA., Oct. 1.—With more than 100 students living outside of the dormitories, sixty-five of them in private homes, the attendance at the Harrisonburg State Normal School has this year passed all previous records. The total enrollment is at present 376, and will likely reach the 400 mark with the end of the session.

The crowded condition has presented most difficulties in the dining-room and in the auditorium. For the first time in the history of the school it has been necessary to refuse boarding accommodations to students. Some of those now registered are taking their meals in town.

Misses Ethel and Irene Warren, who were invited to Baltimore last week on account of the death of her brother, Misses Daniel A. Warren, of Baltimore, Md., is the guest of her home people here.

J. L. Moring, of the Hotel Raleigh, Washington, D. C., has been spending the past week with his mother, Mrs.

The new faculty members are as follows: Miss Edna G. Gleason is added to the home economics department, coming from Teachers' College, New York, where she was engaged in home economics work at the Horace Mann School. Miss Louise Franklin is now instructor in physical education, having done similar work both in Portsmouth and Richmond. Miss Franklin is a graduate of the Savanah School of Physical Education. Miss Amy J. Stevens comes to take charge of the library in the place of Miss Virginia Harnesberger, who is enjoying a year's leave of absence. Miss Stevens has had experience in public library work in Washington, D. C. Miss Fannie M. Nunnally, R. N., will be in charge of the infirmary, and will give instruction in health and home nursing. Miss Nunnally comes from a State hospital at Terra Alta, W. Va., where she has been instructor of nursing. Mrs. J. Frank Blackburn will resume instruction in voice Mrs. Blackburn during the past year has been quite active as president of the Harrisonburg Music Lovers Club.

There are only two members of the teaching staff at the training school now remaining, Miss Elizabeth Becker, who has been acting teacher at Winthrop College, N. C., and who is also a graduate of the Harrisonburg Normal School, and Miss Lois Campbell, who has taught in the public schools in Texas and has a bachelors degree from Georgetown College, Georgetown, Texas.

In connection with the opening of the thirteenth session the faculty re-
